

Student Overdraft

Important Information – Please read carefully

1. Contact details
Creditor	The Co-operative Bank p.l.c.
Address	1 Balloon Street, Manchester, M4 4BE

2. Key features of the credit product
The type of credit	Overdraft.
The total amount of credit This means the amount of credit to be provided under the agreement or the credit limit	Your credit limit is the total amount we agree in advance that you can borrow at any time using your overdraft. We decide how much we will allow you to borrow based on your credit rating and other information about you. If we agree to offer you an overdraft facility we will tell you the credit limit we will allow when we send your overdraft agreement terms to confirm your overdraft. We can change your limit from time to time. Your overdraft agreement terms give more details about when we might do this.
The duration of the credit agreement	This arranged overdraft will expire on the first anniversary of the completion date of your final year of study (the expiry date). We will treat the completion date of your final year of study as the end date of your full-time education course that was detailed in your application for a Student Current Account. If your circumstances change, e.g. you extend your studies, or cease studying, you must tell us as soon as possible and provide us with such evidence of the change as we reasonably request. We will review this arranged overdraft before the expiry date and will contact you again at this time.
Repayment of the credit	You may be required to repay all amounts owed to us in full on the expiry date of your overdraft agreement or immediately on our written demand, at any time.

3. Costs of the credit

The rates of interest which apply to the credit agreement	You will not be charged any interest on your overdraft within your arranged interest-free credit limit, which is based on your year of study, as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Year 1: £1,400 • Year 2: £1,700 • Year 3+: £2,000 We will charge debit interest on any arranged or unarranged, overdrawn balance above the interest-free credit limit (based on your year of study) at an Annual Interest Rate of 35.9% (Variable). Your overdraft limit will not automatically increase in your 2nd, 3rd, or subsequent years of study. You will need to contact us to request an increase to your overdraft limit, but approval will depend on an assessment of account conduct and a review of regular funding.
The rates of interest which apply to the credit agreement continued	We can increase or decrease interest rates for one of the following reasons: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> to take account of an actual, or reasonably expected, change in the interest rates we have to pay for example as a result of a change to the Bank of England Base Rate; to reflect an actual, or reasonably expected, change in: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> our underlying costs; or law or regulation, codes of practice or industry guidance that applies to us, a ruling of a court, ombudsman or similar body or undertaking given to a regulator; or our way of doing business, including the introduction of new technology; if the change is for your benefit; or to reflect any other actual or reasonably expected change that affects us if it is reasonable for us to pass the impact of the change on to you. Any change we make will be reasonably proportionate to the impact of the underlying change on us. We will not make changes to cover the same cost twice. We may also make changes to our interest rates without a particular reason but, if we do this, we'll always explain how the change will affect you and you will be able to end this agreement without extra cost if you don't want to accept the change. If we decrease interest rates you pay: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> the new rate will apply immediately; and within the next 30 days we'll tell you about the change on our website, by branch notices, national press advertisements, statement messages or inserts or by writing to you (this can include email) or by any combination of these methods. We'll give you at least two months' notice before we make any other changes. The new terms will apply to your account automatically at the end of the notice period, but if you do not want to agree to the change, you can switch your account or close it without paying any extra charges or interest, at any time until the change takes effect. If you do not switch or close your account we'll assume you've accepted the change.
Costs	There are no charges for using this overdraft facility.
Costs in the case of late payments	There are no charges for late or missed payments.
Monthly cap on unarranged overdraft charges	The monthly cap on unarranged overdraft charges for your current account is £60. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Each current account will set a monthly maximum charge for: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> going overdrawn when you have not arranged an overdraft; or going over/past your arranged overdraft limit (if you have one). This cap covers any: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> interest and fees for going over/past your arranged overdraft limit; fees for each payment your bank allows despite lack of funds; and fees for each payment your bank refuses due to lack of funds. This is a standard definition of the monthly cap on unarranged overdraft charges that all banks are required to use. The monthly cap refers to the interest applied in a charging period, not a calendar month. Please note that we do not charge fees for allowing or refusing a payment where you have a lack of funds.
Overdraft Charges Cap	We will not charge you more than £60 in debit interest in one charging period. This means that whatever type of overdraft you use (arranged or unarranged or both), the maximum you will pay per charging period will be £60. Once the £60 cap is reached, we will waive any further interest for that charging period.

4. Other important legal aspects

Termination of the credit agreement	This arranged overdraft will end on the expiry date unless it is terminated earlier by you or us. You can terminate the agreement at any time by repaying all amounts owed to us. You should also contact us to arrange for your overdraft facility to be removed from your account. We can also terminate the agreement at any time before the expiry date by giving you at least two months' notice in writing. We may end the agreement and terminate your overdraft immediately, without notice, if we reasonably decide that: <ul style="list-style-type: none">(a) you are seriously or repeatedly in breach of the terms and conditions of the overdraft or the linked current account;(b) you or any other authorised signatory or joint account holder of the overdraft or the linked current account are made bankrupt or enter into an Individual Voluntary Arrangement after you open an account; or(c) you or any other authorised signatory or joint account holder of the overdraft or the linked current account:<ul style="list-style-type: none">• has carried out or tried to carry out fraudulent or illegal activity on the overdraft, the linked current account or any other service we operate, or we have reason to think you or they may do so in the future;• has caused or may cause us to breach any law, regulation, code of practice or other duty which applies to us as a bank;• has behaved improperly towards us or anyone providing services to us (for example, if you have threatened, abused or harassed a member of staff);• has given false or materially incomplete information when applying to open the overdraft, the linked current account or to use any service, or at any time thereafter; or• has allowed a person who is not an authorised signatory to use the overdraft, the linked current account or any other service we provide. You are required to repay all amounts owed to us by your use of this overdraft on the expiry date or immediately on our written demand. We will normally give you warning that your arranged overdraft must be repaid or its limit reduced, but we may ask for repayment without notice. The expiry date may be extended by us following an enquiry from you to change your credit limit. You can close your account at any time. If you terminate the overdraft and interest is payable on all or part of the overdraft, you will need to pay all interest which has been incurred during the period before the agreement can be terminated.
Consultation with a credit reference agency	If we reject any application by you for an overdraft on the basis of information obtained from a credit reference agency when we inform you of that decision we will also inform you (without charge) that our decision is based on information obtained from a credit reference agency, and of the particulars of that agency.
Right to cancel	If for any reason you are not happy with your overdraft, you can cancel your agreement, without giving a reason, within 14 days of you receiving the terms and conditions. You can do this by calling us on 03457 212 212*[†] or writing to us at The Co-operative Bank, PO Box 4931, Swindon. SN4 4PL [†]You will need to answer some security questions. Within 30 days after telling us you want to cancel, you must repay anything you have borrowed (including any interest payable). If you choose not to cancel, the overdraft will continue and these terms and conditions will apply. After the expiry of the 14 day cancellation period you can still end the overdraft agreement at any time by repaying all amounts owed to us.
